

Modern Slavery Policy

Overview

Modern Slavery is a crime and violation of human rights and is defined under the Australian Modern Slavery Act 2018 (the Act) as including eight types of serious exploitation:

- trafficking in persons;
- slavery;
- servitude;
- forced marriage;
- forced labour;
- debt bondage;
- deceptive recruiting for labour or services; and
- the worst forms of child labour which means situations where children are subjected to slavery or similar practices or engaged in hazardous work.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to illustrate Ambrose Construct Group's commitment to ensure to the best of our ability that there is no modern slavery in any part of our business operations. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all business dealings and relationships, and where possible, to ensure modern slavery is not taking place in our own business or supply chain consistent with the Group disclosure obligations under the Act.

Scope

This policy applies to all persons working for and with Ambrose Construct Group or on its behalf in any capacity, including employees, directors, officers, external consultants, third-party representatives and business partners.
